NAVEED ILYAS

Frontend Web Developer (React JS)

As an entry-level Frontend Web Developer, I have a solid foundation in HTML, CSS, Tailwind CSS, SASS/SCSS, JavaScript, and React Js. I am eager to apply my knowledge and learn from experienced professionals to create engaging and user-friendly websites. With strong attention to detail and a passion for continuous growth, I am excited to contribute to your team and expand my skills through hands-on experience. Let's connect for an interview and collaborate on delivering exceptional digital experiences together!
